AMERIFORCE MEDIA TO LAUNCH MILITARY INFLUENCER MAGAZINE

(WHEATON, IL) JULY 2, 2020 - In partnership with Military Influencer Conference (MIC), AmeriForce Media announces the launch of Military Influencer, the first quarterly print and digital magazine that features dedicated content and experiences focused on military entrepreneurs and influencers.

The magazine connects readers with the dynamic voices behind emerging and reputable military brands aligned with today's unique perspectives on entrepreneurship, brand building, and social impact. Each issue will offer readers the opportunity to immerse themselves into relevant conversations from leaders and influencers who are driving businesses and brands forward.

"AmeriForce Media is proud of our exclusive partnership with the MIC team, who continue to deliver unrivaled live experiences rooted in growing connections and opportunities for military content creators, influencers, and entrepreneurs. By expanding to a media product, our partnership will help actualize MIC's reach and resources year-round," said Bianca Strzalkowski, Managing Editor.

The audience of Military Influencer Magazine is not only sizable, with over 120,000 readers across 2,000 locations, but it's unduplicated.

"Growth is as essential to us as to the thousands of entrepreneurs we're committed to serving. The goal is to create an evergreen community that thrives outside of the annual event. A place where entrepreneurs, innovators, and social impact leaders can be inspired and continue to take action on new opportunities," said Curtez Riggs, Founder, MIC.

The inaugural edition will be available in September. For more information on opportunities for advertising, features or freelance assignments, contact managing_editor@ameriforcemedia.com.
